8:10	Update Reports <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Recall Call to Action – Bill Monroe</li> <li>• Covid – Lise Talbott</li> <li>• Redistricting – Debra Broner</li> <li>• Wildfire Resilience           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Insurance               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) SB 11, which extends FAIR Plan (insurance of last resort) to agricultural properties, was signed by the Governor 7.26. But nothing is going to happen quickly, unfortunately. Providers must now submit rate schedules for ag properties for the Commissioner’s approval. Best case, the process will take a couple of months.</li> <li>b) State won its lawsuit July 12 affirming the Commissioner’s authority that the FAIR Plan must offer broader, more comprehensive insurance protection. That’s a win.</li> <li>c) The Rural Caucus supports the Commissioner’s desire to be able to make the insurance industry include “credit” for home and business fire protection mitigation efforts as favorable in issuing and renewing policies.</li> </ol> </li> </ul> </li> </ul>
8:20	Confirmed Speaker: Insurance Commissioner Ricardo Lara to introduce a campaign he is leading to name extreme heat events in the way that hurricanes are given names, so they can be evaluated, metrics established, and mitigation measures can be planned. Having such a classification would allow for insurance to help governments protect people – especially agriculture workers.
